

THE WEEKLY REPUBLICAN

VOLUME 56

PLYMOUTH, INDIANA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 1911

THE TRIBUNE AND CHRONICLE NEWSPAPER PRINTING PLANTS HAVE BEEN COMBINED

Papers Will Be Called "The Weekly Republican" and "The Plymouth Daily Republican."

TRANSACTION RECEIVED WITH DELIGHT BY BUSINESS MEN AND PARTY

Combined Business Will Give Largest Circulation in the County and Best Equipped Job Plant in the City. Paper Will be Published From Present Location of Chronicle.

Jan. 7—A deal was closed today whereby S. E. Boys, publisher of the Chronicle, becomes owner of the Tribune daily and weekly newspapers and printing plant in Plymouth.

The two plants will be combined and the papers published under the name of "The Weekly Republican" and "The Plymouth Daily Republican."

The present location of the Chronicle will be maintained and enlarged to take care of the machinery and increased business.

The combination of these two papers has long been wished for by both business interests and the members of the republican party. This announcement will, therefore, be very welcome news not only to the business men of Plymouth but to the party throughout the county.

This change leaves only one republican paper in Marshall county, which is very desirable from a political point of view; and only two papers in the city of Plymouth, which is a very desirable situation from many viewpoints.

The combination gives the Republican by far the largest circulation both on Daily and on Weekly in the county and will make its plant the best equipped newspaper and job plant in the city.

It will take perhaps a month or more before changes of the machinery and complete installation of the combined plant are done. In the meantime the best efforts will be made to care for the job work as promptly as possible under the conditions.

On Monday the Republican will be issued from one office to the subscribers of both the Tribune and the Chronicle and the same thing will be done on the weekly list on Thursday.

The taking up of the old newspaper name "Republican" for the party organ name in this county we believe will be the most satisfactory to everybody. Though the contents of the paper will be the same whatever the name, yet there is something in a name.

Mr. Hendricks will finish some job printing here and expects then to buy a newspaper in some larger city.

He has always had an excellent job business and his skill in that line will be missed in this city. It started the Tribune in 1901 as the successor of the Republican and has published it since that date. Especial praise should be given to his son, Wm. C. Hendricks, for his ability as a news writer. For the past two or three years he has had almost entire charge of the newspaper part of the business and has kept the Tribune at a high standard. His work has been much appreciated by the public.

Postal Examination.

Jan. 7—The postal department held a civil service examination for rural mail carriers this morning in the commissioner's room at the court house.

Fifteen prospective applicants were on hand at 10:30 o'clock to answer the questions of Uncle Sam. Ten of them came from Bourbon to seek the place. The Bourbon candidates were Roy Eby, G. G. Stein, Richard Reed, R. J. Hoffer, Louis Vernet, Glen Dillingham, E. H. Agnew, J. P. Keister, I. G. Neff and Jesse Stein. The other five were John Pfender, Edward Hess, Lloyd Zumbaugh, John R. Jacoby and John H. Webster of Plymouth.

Circuit Court.

Jan. 7—Many cases were disposed of today as this was the last day of this term of court.

A judgment of $389.44 was awarded Hilda K. Reinhold against Bernard T. McShane and real estate ordered sold.

Lillian Fieser was granted a divorce from Frank M. Fieser and given custody of the child.

The Lemler ditch was established and W. R. Schoonover appointed drainage commissioner.

Judgment in the Menser vs. Crowley case was rendered, the plaintiff to take nothing and ordered to pay the costs.

Homer D. Redick was allowed $168.37 against the estate of David Redick.

WISE WAS DEFEATED

In the Speakership Fight at State Capital.

ALBERT J. VENEMAN SELECTED

Local Candidate Goes Down With Anti-Taggart Faction. Double Crossed.

Albert J. Veneman of Evansville was selected by the democratic caucus for the next speaker of the house of the Indiana Legislature. He was selected on the second ballot over Adam E. Wise of Plymouth, Adolph Seidensticker of Indianapolis, M. C. Thornton of New Albany and Joe M. Cravens of Madison.

It was a case of Taggart or Anti Taggart and the National committee showed he had the winning hand. Taggart decided that Veneman should be the next speaker and the anti placed the most of their strength back of Wise.

The first ballot gave Veneman 24, Wise 14, Seidensticker 10, Cravens 6 and Thornton 4, and the second which brought the nomination was: Veneman 31, Wise 18, Seidensticker 5, Cravens 2 and Thornton 2.

Editor C. W. Metsker, S. N. Stevens and other leading Marshall county democrats were on the ground doing what they could to support the candidacy of Wise. Peter J. Kruger was also in Indianapolis but according to the papers of that city he was with the Veneman crowd.

Local politicians claim that the victory was one for Governor Marshall but here is what one of the Indianapolis papers says about the candidacy of Adam Wise:

"The lineup behind Wise came principally from anti-Taggart men, or men who have previously been identified with the Taggart element but were 'dumped' in this race. The anti-Taggart men realized for the first time Tuesday that they had made a mistake in not uniting upon one candidate and the negotiations began at once. It was again that a combination could not be formed that would be of much benefit to Seidensticker, so the only thing to do was to line up with Fleming for Wise."

THE PLYMOUTH REPUBLICAN

* Saturday witnessed the last publication of the Plymouth Tribune and * the Plymouth Chronicle as separate newspapers. Beginning Monday * January 9th, a new newspaper will make its appearance in Plymouth * The two Republican newspapers have been combined by Samuel E. Boys * publisher of the Chronicle and will be called THE PLYMOUTH RE- * PUBLICAN.

* This is the last issue of this newspaper under the management of * Hendricks and Company.

* The final union of the two Republican newspapers has been accom- * plished, after efforts toward consolidation extending for several months * past. The combination of the circulation of both papers, has been * the ideal of both managements for a long time, and has been finally * accomplished, with perfect satisfaction toward the publishers of both.

* The union of the two publications, will be a date of importance in * the editorial history of Plymouth and Marshall county. Many difficult * situations such as advertising patronage by business men, political con- * dition, etc. will at once be corrected by the consolidation, which was * deferred only by the inability to reach satisfactory terms.

* The Plymouth Tribune, was instituted by Hendricks and Co. in the * year 1900, as a successor to the Plymouth Republican, and Plymouth * Evening News.

* During the time, that these publications were issued by the retiring * management, every effort has been made, to give the residents of Ply- * mouth and Marshall county, the best newspaper which has ever been * published here. The Tribune has made many enemies by its attitude * on various public questions, but it has always stood and fought for * what it deemed was the right. As a consequence, we believe that the * Tribune has a host of friends, more staunch and true than its most * bitter "disbelievers." To this army of friends—our subscribers and * patrons—we heartily introduce, and recommend our successor, and late * contemporary, Mr. Samuel E. Boys who will continue to serve you * with the best Plymouth newspaper, the Plymouth Republican.

* The present management will in all probabilities, leave Plymouth * With the idea in mind, of seeking a larger field, with an increased * chance of opportunity for our children, our intentions are to secure * a newspaper in a larger city.

* The year 1910, has been the most prosperous year in the history of * the Tribune. As publishers of the Tribune, we believe that we have * advanced the paper to its utmost and with confident hopes of high * prospects, we consign the newspaper to the new management, The * Plymouth Republican. To our friends and past patrons, we extend * our heart-felt thanks, for support and patronage, so generously be- * stowed, and wish all a happy and prosperous new year. And so with * malice toward none, and good will toward all, we say—Good-bye.

DEATHS

INFANT REED.

Argos, Jan. 9—The seven months old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Reed died at his home in Argos Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock of pneumonia and will be buried in Bremen Tuesday noon.

MRS. JUTE VINALL.

Jan. 6—Mrs. Mary Jane Gilson-Vinall, wife of Jute Vinall and a well known resident of this city, died at her home at 714 north Walnut street last night at 10:30 o'clock.

She had been sick for the past year and a half and for six months has been confined to her home.

Mrs. Vinall was born in Ohio Jan. 21, 1858, and was the daughter of John and Amanda Gilson. When but a small child she moved with her parents to this county, where she spent the remainder of her life. She was a quiet, modest home-loving woman, and while her life was not one to mingle among the many, but of those who were privileged as neighbors and friends to bear her acquaintance, she will always be remembered.

Her life was devoted to her home and children. She was a member of the St. Thomas Episcopal church of this city.

She was married to Jute Vinall about thirty years ago. Besides the husband there are left five children, four girls and one boy; Mrs. Ora Miller of South Bend, Mrs. Marjorie Conant of Kendallville, Vera, Gilbert and Esther who reside at home. Her father, two sisters and two brothers also survive her. The brothers, are James of South Bend and George of Goheen, and the sisters are Mrs.

Principal of the high school of this city and has been rooming at Rev. Yager's while his wife has been sick. Mrs. McDowell was about 30 years of age and leaves besides her husband two daughters two and five years old respectively. While a resident of Plymouth she made many friends and will long be remembered for her kind and genial ways. She was a member of the Methodist church and an active worker before her health was impaired.

Funeral services will be held at the Methodist church in Kokomo Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Death of Mrs. Solomon Zehner

Mrs. Nancy Jane Zehner, a long and well known resident of Plymouth died at her home on north Michigan street, Sunday morning at 5:20 o'clock, after an illness lasting for several weeks. She was 67 years, 9 months, and 9 days of age, at the time of her death. Deceased had been in poor health for several months and had been confined to her bed for the past six weeks.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Plake, her maiden name was Nancy Jane Plake. Her parents moved to Argos, when she was nine years of age, and conducted the first hotel in that town. The family had previously resided in Rush county, Indiana. When thirty-four years of age, she was married to Robert McDonald and resided south of Plymouth. Four children born of this union are living. They are Mrs. Charles Zumbaugh who resides south of Plymouth Samuel McDonald, and John McDonald of Plymouth and Eliza, who lives in South Dakota. After the death of Mr. McDonald she was married to Anthony Kiehnor. One child which was born, died several years ago. Her last husband, the late Solomon Zehner, died December 6th, 1907.

Deceased was a life long member of the Seventh Day Advent church. She has resided in Plymouth and Marshall county practically all of her life, and was widely known.

The funeral was held at the residence Tuesday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock, conducted by David Van-Vactor. Interment at Oak Hill.

Card of Thanks.

We desire, in this manner, to express our sincere thanks and heartfelt gratitude to everyone who in any way assisted us in our great bereavement, and assure you it will be our constant prayer that you may prosper in this world, and that eternal happiness may be yours in the world to come. But should it be that trouble and misfortune befall you, remember that you have our deepest sympathy.

J. J. VINALL AND FAMILY,
MR. AND MRS. ANTHONY MILLER,
MR. AND MRS. E. S. CONANT.

FORTNIGHTLY ENTERTAIN

At the Home of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Thayer Wednesday Evening.

Jan. 5—The Fortnightly Club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Thayer last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. James W. Thayer.

A three course supper was served at 6:30 o'clock at which fifty guests were seated. After the refreshments were served the party indulged in whist in which Mrs. Moses Lauer made the high score for the ladies and Harry Armstrong scored for the other sex. The low score was captured by Mrs. Harry Buck for the ladies and Dr. C. F. Holtzendorf for the men.

The entire party agreed that they had been royally entertained and that their hosts and hostesses had proved themselves equal to the occasion.

Moves to Bourbon.

Mrs. James Redick and children of Inwood, have decided to make Bourbon their future home, so this week they move to the property recently vacated by Elmer Burwell. We are glad to have them among us and trust they will be as glad to be here.—Bourbon News Mirror.

New Cases.

Grace L. Himes against Bert Himes for divorce and custody of the child.

Bell & Co. against Geo. W. Ramsey for collection of note.

McCrory against Lidecker case for partition was dismissed.

COMPULSORY CHOICE

German Township Compelled Selection of Fries.

CRAM SHOWN TO BE MOST POPULAR

Choice of Commissioners for Infirmary Superintendent Gives Much Dissatisfaction Among Democrats.

The choice of William Fries of Bremen as successor to Peter J. Kruger as superintendent of the county farm seems not to have given the best satisfaction, according to comments among democrats since the election.

It is said the party wanted a young man without a family, and Mr. Fries is over fifty and has five children. It is said further that they wanted a farmer and that Mr. Fries is a clerk in a hardware store and not a man of proper caliber to handle the job as it should be.

Moreover, the thing which decided his selection was neither his favor with the commissioners nor his fitness for the place, but instead it was a cold, raw threat from the democrats of German township which amounted to compulsion in the matter. There was nothing else for the commissioners to do but elect Fries.

They voted for twenty-four ballots to make showing and then did what they intended to do at the beginning.

The German township politicians put it up something like this, so it is said by those on the inside.

"German township gave the ticket over 200 majority, and if you don't give us this place we will go republican in the next election."

That was what turned the trick. The feeling of the commissioners is shown, however, by the following votes which the different candidates received:

1st	ballot, Sult, Cram, Fries
2nd	" " Crull, Voreis
3rd	" " Brugh, Cramer, Cram
4th	" " Fries, Voreis, Sarber
5th	" " Brugh, Sult, Cram
6th	" " Cram, Fries, Sarber
7th	" " " Voreis
8th	" " " Sarber
9th	" " " Voreis
10th	" " " Cramer, "
11th	" " Crull, Fries, "
12th	" " Cram, " Sarber
13th	" " Sult, Voreis
14th	" " Cram, Brugh, Sarber
15th	" " Sult, Sarber
16th	" " " "
17th	" " " Fries, Sarber
18th	" " " Voreis
19th	" " " Sult
20th	" " " Voreis
21st	" " " "
22nd	" " " "
23rd	" " " "
24th	" " " (2)

Total votes received by each of the candidates were: Brugh 3, Sult 7, Cramer 2, Cram 21, Crull 2, Fries 16, Sarber 8 and Voreis 11. Commissioners Lee and Thayer cast the votes that elected Fries on the 24th ballot.

It is said by Sarber's friends that he had the strongest and best recommendations of any of the candidates. The vote shows however that Cram was the strongest candidate as he received the most votes and was in reality the commissioners choice.

George Pooler Indicted.

Jan. 7—An indictment with four counts was returned against George Pooler for selling liquor to minors and without a license. He was arrested and gave bonds for $50 for each count amounting to $200 which were signed by H. A. Logan.

Jan. 6—The case of Homer Redick against the estate of David Redick for claim is being heard by Judge Bernetha today. Quite a number of witnesses from Bourbon are attending the trial.

EAGLES ENTERTAIN

At Hill's Cafe Wednesday Evening.

EXCELLENT BANQUET AND DANCE

Many Attend Social Function and Are Treated to an Array of Oratory.

Jan. 5—The fraternal order of Eagles celebrated their first birthday of the local lodge by a banquet to their wives and lady friends last night.

The object of the gala event was to promote fraternal fellowship and to increase the interest in the order.

One hundred and two members and friends assembled in Aerie room at 8 o'clock and proceeded to Hill's cafe where an informal reception was given to the ladies while the supper was being prepared. At nine o'clock they were seated to the banquet tables and were treated to the best in the land. Ed Koontz, the worthy president, gave way to Judge W. H. Vangilder who acted as toastmaster.

A four course supper was served, the menu being as follows:

New York Counts	Wafer Crackers
Cream Salad	Cold Slaw
Shrimp Salad
Noodle Soup	Pearl Crackers
Roast Pig	Cranberry Sauce
Brown Bread	White Rolls
Sage Dressing
Peach Pie	Vanilla Ice Cream
Coffee	Nuts Cigars

Joseph Rober prepared the young pig for the occasion.

After the supper the toastmaster gave an address which was responded to by P. J. Troyer, J. F. Thomas, Eugene Pesch, Levi Vangilder and William Martin of Plymouth and John Frost and Earl Carbiener of Bremen.

After the banquet a dance was held which lasted until two o'clock. Seybold's orchestra furnished the music. A good time was had and all agreed that the Eagles have established a record of hospitality that cannot be excelled.

P. H. S. Notes.

Next week will be test week.

The first semester closes January 20.

Herlus Poor visited High school last Friday.

Schuyler Nolan has entered the Junior class from Bourbon.

High school began Wednesday after a vacation of two weeks.

The Latin VI and VII class are reading the 2nd oration of Cicero.

Arthur Massena has been absent from school. He has the mumps.

Work on the Senior Annual has commenced. It is the desire to get out a beautiful book this year.

Will Hendricks has given up directing the High school orchestra. They have not decided who they will get.

The Freshmen have been in our midst nearly one term. They act like they had only been here a day. It is about time they were waking up.

The Short Hand class is progressing very nicely. They are nearly through the book and will then be ready to review and take nothing but dictation work.

Mrs. Work Has New Auto.

Mrs. Julia E. Work has a new Buick auto, similar to her old one which she exchanged on this one. The new car is a beauty and a fine running machine. The business of Mrs. Work's training school has become such that she cannot get along without a good automobile which so greatly assists in her labors.
